NATIONAL BANK OF ANGUILLA LIMITED

Notes

BY-LAW 3.8: At every meeting, at which he is entitled to vote, every shareholder, proxy holder (including proxy holder or individual authorized to represent a shareholder), who is present in person shall have one vote. Upon a ballot at which he is entitled to vote, every shareholder shall have one vote for every share held by the shareholder.

BY-LAW 3.11: No person other than a director retiring at the meeting shall be eligible for election to the office of director at any general meeting unless:

- a) recommended by directors; or
- b) not less than seven (7) nor more than twenty-one (21) days before the date appointed for the meeting there shall have been left at the registered office of the company notice in writing, signed by a member duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by such person of his willingness to be elected.

BY-LAW 3.12: Elections to the Board of Directors shall be held in such secret form as may be approved by the Chairman. On such a vote, unless a ballot is demanded, each shareholder present in person shall have one vote and each proxy holder shall have one vote for each proxy held.

BY-LAW 3.13: At any meeting, unless a ballot is demanded, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

BY-LAW 3.15: If two or more persons hold shares jointly, one of those holders present at a meeting of shareholders may, in the absence of the other, vote on the share; but if two or more of those persons who are present, in person or by proxy, vote, they must vote as one on shares jointly held by them.

BY-LAW 3.16: In the case of a shareholder who is a body corporate or association, the vote shall be given by an individual authorized by a resolution of the directors or governing body of that body corporate or association to represent it at a meeting of shareholders of the company by written notice to the secretary at the registered office of the Company, and a body corporate or association so represented shall be deemed to be present in person.

BY-LAW 10.4: Directors shall be elected for a term of three years. At each Annual General Meeting one-third of the directors for the time being, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number closest to one-third, shall retire from office. The directors to retire in every year shall be those who have longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. The tenure of directors appointed prior to the adoption of these By-laws shall not be interrupted by the continuance of the Company or by the adoption of these By-laws.

* Person(s) nominated shall contact the corporate office to complete for further details on the process.
